Lenawee District Library
2020 Local Author Fair Submission Form

The LDL 2020 Author Fair will take place at the Main Branch on Saturday, April 18th from 2:00 – 3:30 p.m. Please return this form filled out to the Main Branch no later than Saturday March 21st at 5:30 p.m. Space is limited, and author applications which meet our guidelines will be granted a table at the author fair. Authors will be contacted by April 4th via email to confirm their spot in the fair. The following rules apply:

- All authors must be local (Lenawee County and closely surrounded areas)
- You must be a published author
- We encourage authors to have physical copies of their books; however, authors published only digital may also attend as long as they have promotional materials
- Each author must bring their own displays and advertisements
- Displays must be "family friendly"
- You can promote and sell your books, but you cannot use the author fair to promote or sell items from any of your other businesses

The mission of the Lenawee District Library Author Fair is to provide an outlet for local authors to promote and grow their presence in the community; and for residents to gain access to local authors and learn about the creative writing process. It is recommended that you provide information at your tables and be prepared to engage with the public.

If your book contains "r-rated content", it will be stated in the author fair pamphlet to inform families with children.

By signing this form, you agree to our terms and conditions as stated above:
